The snow and wind keeps Charles Saunders and Charles Hersey busy breaking roads.

Mrs. Herbert Lord spent Tuesday with Mrs. Charles Hersey.

Albany Line

Mr. and Mrs. E. Brown and Walter Lord went to East Stoughton to attend the auction there of Ernest Bartlett, Tuesday, but the auction was called off and there will not be any this winter.

While returning home they saw a crowd of their heads near Charles York's place. Old people used to claim it was a sure sign that winter had broken.

The water was eight inches deep on Hutchinson Pond Wednesday. There are a number of teams hauling lumber across the pond, and with the snow and wind it was almost impossible.

A number are cutting ice on Pappoose Pond this week.

E. K. Shedd and B. J. Flint have been breaking roads for many days and say they never had so hard a time to get through as they have this winter.

Time and still the roads are drifting faster than they can shovel out and roll them down.

We are pleased to learn that Dr. L. Hall Truitt of Norway, who underwent such a serious operation recently, is on the road to recovery.

Wallace Jones is hauling wood to So. Paris from Fred Scribner's. He tipped his load over Monday in the drifts.

E. K. Shedd also sold him one pair.

Lincoln Holmes is moving goods to his home in Bismectown. Monday he came from Albany Town House district with a four horse load.

Will Green visited his sister, Mrs. Wm. Fisk, Sunday.

Oscar Brown of South Waterford called on friends in this place last week. He was with George Hill buying cattle.

Henry Durgin is soon to commence work in his mill, it is said. He is putting up the smoke stack.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marston have returned home from Lovell. Mr. Marston will board with Fred Hazelton and Mrs. Marston will stop with her mother, Mrs. E. J. Paige.

HEBRON

A Former Student

"Fred A. Pottle, assistant in history and English at Hebron academy, resigned at the close of last term to enter the national service. He is now stationed at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, in the medical department. His place on the Hebron faculty has been taken by John B. Matthews, a graduate of the academy in 1914 and a member of 1918 class at Bowdoin college. Mr. Matthews' energy and ability enabled him to finish his college course in three and a half years, so that he can give undivided attention to his work at Hebron after the mid-year examinations at Bowdoin. Mr. Matthews is a graduate of the first training camp at Plattsburg, where he received a commission, but was later placed on the reserve list because of minor physical defects. Probably the argument will be made whereby he can give instruction in military training to the Hebron boys. At the academy Mr. Matthews will teach ancient, medieval and English history, and a course in business English.

Consider These Clothing Facts

More than a year ago we warned the people of South Paris and vicinity that the serious shortage of wool would inevitably lead to much higher prices for clothing. Since that time the entry of the United States into the war has further curtailed the amount of wool available for civilian use.

If any man feels disappointed because clothing prices are not yet as high as he expected, let him be patient a little longer and his expectations will be

PICK UPS ON WHEELS

Mid-winter Los Angeles Times has arrived and been carefully examined. It usually takes a day or two to look it through and results in my wishing to go there to get rid of fuel bills and cold weather.

About as near as I have come to going is to write to A. B. Caswell of Harrison, who is wintering there and inquire about expenses. He says you can buy a ticket to Portland as cheaply as in Boston and two tickets several yards long good for return with lower berth going out cost $346.83. They went from Boston to Los Angeles with only one change of cars and that at Chicago. They started Tuesday noon and got there at 2:40 p. m., Saturday.

Good room with hot and cold water cost $5.00 per week at Hotel Munn, which is near the osteopathic college where he is being treated. Meals at cafeterias do not cost as much as at Greenleaf's in Norway. Mr. and Mrs. Caswell are liking and will probably want to go there or somewhere else every winter hereafter.

The Times contained 146 reasonable sized pages and much interesting reading. I notice Harry E. Andrews at one time part owner of the Lewiston Journal, is managing editor and a director of publishing company. He has been on that paper almost 30 years and I try to make myself believe that it is through his thoughtfulness I receive the annual Mid-winter number.

I have received a book from the "Private Print of Martin A. Hayes, Lakeport, N. H., 1918." It is number 31 and presented by the author who makes books to give away. This one is the Proceedings and Addresses at the Gifford Centennial Celebration of June 17, 1912, permanently preserved and embellished with unique illustrations attractively setting off the scenic beauties of that town. One hundred copies were printed and half of them given the Gifford Public Library "with no string attached."

Surely, it is a valuable collection of historic matter and is much prized by me and in future years will become of priceless value to the descendants of that town. The front piece is a picture of the Diamond Island House in the sixties. I recall when this house was built. The Bickford Store at Meredith Center was taken down and hauled with oxen to the Weirs from where it was towed to the island. The broad side of the building was hauled intact and occupied all the road and more too, making passing difficult.

Who did the hauling, I can't say, but think Dave Batchelder of Laconia had something to do with it. As a child I was struck with great wonder when it passed our house on its way to the Weirs. The old Bickford store cellar can now be seen opposite the house of Nate Plummer at Meredith Center. The lot is owned by some of the Bickford relatives living in Massachusetts.

An exchange contains the following:—"The water font of Mrs. John R. Grant, Portland street, burst Tuesday, wrecking the stove and doing considerable damage to the kitchen. Mrs. Grant was within two feet of the stove at the time, and barely escaped injury. The damage will amount to $25.00."

Thrift stamps grow into war savings stamps and the latter into war savings certificates. The thrift stamps cost 25 cents each and war savings stamps $4.15 if bought this month. Next month they will cost one cent more. The war savings certificate when filled, represents $100.00. Twenty of the thrift stamps represent, with the addition of the 12 cents, five dollars, and twenty of these make the certificate of $100.00. The whole cost of the war savings Certificate is $85.00 and it represents $100.00. That is, the Government pays you interest at the rate of 4 per cent, compounded quarterly until the amount you have paid and the interest amounts to the full value. This is a perfectly safe investment and good interest on your money.

John A. Woodman shows me a letter from E. D. Grant of Moorhead, Minn., written last month in which he says the past season has been very dry and crops have suffered, but as the three previous years have been wet, the dry season was really needed.

Mr. Grant has added to his farm another section of land, having bought a quarter-section of Iowa parties for $55.00 per acre—the same price it was sold for nine years ago. The Iowa folks were farming at arm's length and did not get satisfactory returns.

This purchase, with land previously owned gives Mr. Grant a farm of over 2,600 acres and he plans on planting next season 1,000 acres to wheat; 500 acres to oats and barley, 320 acres to potatoes; 160 acres to corn and about 100 acres to clover.

Some big lay-out for crops! A total of over two thousand acres under cultivation. He adds "balance of farm will be used for hogs and pasturage."

He made it pretty good on pigs the past season selling 135 "right out of the pasture for $16.50 each to go to Nebraska to eat up their soft corn. His hog family is left intact for another season's operations.

He says this: "Out here we don't expect to make any money so long as the war lasts, expenses are too high, but we are determined to grow all the grub we can. Everybody here is very patriotic, although we do not think it quite fair for the Government to put a price of $2.00 on wheat and let everything else we have to buy go wild."

"My brother-in-law, Ed. Benedict, and I went down to the International Stock Show in Chicago and stayed four days and saw some good stock sold at long prices. A Scotch bred Shorthorn cow with heifer calf by her side brought $4,900. We are turning our attention more to good stock each year and are gradually changing our grades to pure blooded stock."

I bought a new "Studebaker Six" last Spring and had the luck to have it stolen in September. It was taken in the daytime while standing in the streets of Fargo. My wife left it without locking. I advertised for and near and offered $100 reward, but have not found it yet and probably won't.

Mr. Grant visited the Woodmans in Norway a few years and called at this office. At one time he boarded at the City Hotel, Manchester, N. H., when it was run by Mr. and Mrs. Woodman. This was when he was selling books and before he took to farming.

Put an ad in the Intelligence Column, it will surely bring results. Seeing for yourself is believing. Try it!

Blankets and Robes

Present market conditions indicate that an advance in price is not unlikely for all grades of stable and street blankets and robes. Jobbers stocks are reported to be unusually low and on many leading styles they are entirely sold out. This means a scarcity when retailers present stocks are exhausted, as it will be hard to get the desirable styles.

We have an unusually full stock of stable blankets in burlaps and ducks and in all the different styles of fasteners and sureties. Prices on these goods are very low, considering their scarcity and the difficulty of getting them. Duck storm blankets in medium and large sizes.

A fine assortment of street blankets, of the best colors, in stripes, plaids and Indian weaves, ranging in price from $1.50 up to $6, $7 and $8 each. Many of these are in beautiful colors and well worth your examination.

WATERFORD

William Douglass

William Douglass was born in Waterford, June 10, 1836. He was the seventh child in a family of ten, born to Rev. John Abbott and Lucy Abbott Douglass.

Mr. Douglass was the pastor of the First Congregational church of Waterford for over fifty years. He was educated in the Waterford public schools and at Bridgton Academy and for some time read law with an uncle, and though never applying for admission to the bar, yet gained a knowledge of the profession that made his assistance and advice in legal matters much sought after by members of the community.

For some time he followed the trade of a machinist, but this was prohibited by an injury to his right hand from which he never fully recovered. Sometime in the eighties he held the office of sheriff of Oxford County, where by his scrupulous attention to and efficient performance of the duties of the office he won the highest esteem of all.

He was for fifty-two years a member of Mt. Tir'enn Lodge, F. and A. M., of which he was at one time master and he was also a member of the Royal Arch Chapter and the Council located in Bridgton.

Mr. Douglass was very appreciative of the beauty of the ritual and of the value of the moral and spiritual teachings of the order and few men in this section were so well versed in Masonic lore. He was also a member of Keoka Chapter, O. E. S.

Throughout his four score years, Waterford has been his home. The present winter, being alone and in feeble health, he had taken quarters at the Lake House where he passed away on the tenth instant and funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon attended by a large number of his friends. Rev. G. W. Sias officiated, paying tribute to him as a careful and conscientious workman, an intelligent and interesting companion, a frank and courteous friend, a supporter of good causes.

Of his immediate family he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Clara Eveleth of Hallowell, who was present at the funeral. Others from out of town were Abbie Eveleth of Waterville, Mr. and Mrs. John Archer Eveleth of Marblehead, Mass., and George Wells of Amesbury, Mass. Interment was made in the family lot in Elmvalle cemetery.

Eugene M. Dunley, who has been confined to his room for over a year, walked down stairs, Monday.

E. B. Pike is on the sick list.

The Sunday services are being held in the vestry during the very cold weather.

At the annual meeting of the Missionary Society, Tuesday, the following elections were made:

Pres.—Susan H. Wilkins.
Vice Pres.—Ellen Knight.
Sec.—Mrs. G. W. Sias.
Treas.—Katherine Baird.

There will be a circle supper at the vestry, Friday evening, Jan. 18.

The officers of Keoka Chapter, O. E. S., and of Mt. Tir'enn Lodge, F. and A. M., will be installed on Friday evening, Jan. 25. The exercises will be open to members of the orders and their families.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the South Paris Local of the N. E. M. P. A. will be held at Grange Hall, South Paris, Saturday, Jan. 19th at 10:30 a. m. The grange will furnish a dinner free of charge to all members and to any others within the jurisdiction of the Local that are interested.

Hon. J. A. Roberts, commissioner of Agriculture is expected to be present as speaker of the day.

Alleged Forger Captured

William H. Wheeler, who is wanted in Oxford County for an alleged check forging escapade about Norway and South Paris, has been located at Winchester, Va. Sheriff Harry D. Cole and Deputy Sheriff Leon M. Small of Mexico, armed with requisition papers from Governor Milliken, have gone after the prisoner, who is being held by the state police.

Wheeler, who had been living in Norway, was arrested last May on the charge of passing worthless checks in South Paris. He was bound over in the Norway Municipal Court in the sum of $500, bail being furnished by his wife and her mother, Mrs. Wilson Larabee, who is owner of a place at North Buckfield.

Indictments were found against him at the October term of Supreme Judicial Court, but Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler were not to be found. Mrs. Larabee and the officers started a country wide search for the fugitives.

It has been learned in the mean time that Wheeler is familiar with court proceedings having done a year in the Skowhegan jail for forgery, but made his escape. He has been at Bath, Winchester and other places.

This is surely a "find" and his apprehension will prove a pleasing episode to the county officials, also to Mrs. Larabee, who sacrificed her right in a small home to give an ungrateful son-in-law freedom before his trial.

Wheeler returned with the officers without trouble this week and is once more in the county jail. His wife and fourteen days old infant returned also and will stay with relatives at Buckfield. The old game with checks at Richmond, Va. was the cause of his arrest it is claimed.

NUX, IRON, PEPSIN AND SARSAPARILLA

The combination of two great medicines, Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pepsin, by taking them in conjunction, one before eating and the other after, brings into co-operation the above-named substances, best for the blood, nerves and digestive organs.

This combination is recommended in cases of scrofulous, or rheumatic, anemic and nervous, or where the blood is both impure and pale, deficient in iron—one of the most common disease conditions of the present day.

In cases where a laxative is needed, Hood's Pills should be taken. They work in perfect harmony with Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pepsin, and are mild and efficient.

George Haskell, assistant secretary of the Western Maine Poultry Association, is pleased with the showing of his Barred Plymouth Rock, which were at the last show. He won $9 in prizes and received favorable mention from the judges for the quality of his birds.

Middle Interval

A New Year's present of a baby girl has come to the home of the Winslows on the Ferry farm, making a family of ten children and father and mother.

Blanche Kimball is copying her mother's poems to be printed in a book. The glass is down to zero Monday in the sun. Coldest winter so far for many years all over New England, as well as here.

A letter from our sister in Colorado says: We have had very little winter weather here, it has been mild and spring like. All of my spare time when I am well enough, I put into knitting for the soldiers. We had the finest December here I have ever seen."

School of 1886
Reading of the death of Otis Wyman reminds us of a pleasant school in the district where he lived when his father and mother were alive, then the old Baptist minister Elder Wyman. It was in the year 1886, Nov. 29th when we took charge of the school as teachers. Here are the names and ages of pupils: Eva A. Smith 11, Florence M. Frost 15, Lillian A. Small 12, Lorena M. Small 15, Zilla M. Austin 15, Sonnie Haines 14, Edgar O. Wyman 14, Elias B. Frost 15, Luella B. Burgess 13, Charles H. Bishop 14, Andrew H. Churchill 14, Albert H. Austin 14, Georgia A. Austin 11, G. V. Austin 10, Ismay A. Haines 10, Eugene E. Haines 12, Vernon A. Austin 12, Ezra W. Small 12, Leon B. Burgess 8, Etta Smith 6, Earl Small 5, Arthur W. Small 11, Louisa J. Austin 10, Joseph Thurlow 13 and Orrie Austin 3. These were all nice people and a pleasant location.

There were 23 scholars. We can never forget pleasant hours and scenes in the schoolroom in so many different towns in Oxford County mostly, a few in other counties.

Notes From Local Board

Misapprehension may exist in some cases, as notice of classification is sent to registered men on account of what may appear to be error, in placing in a higher or lower class, through good judgment, and a "square deal" policy, which protects the Government on the one hand and the individual on the other, would warrant, and for this reason it has been thought best by the Local Board for Oxford County, to clear the situation as far as possible, by stating that discovery of conditions materially different from those shown by the Questionnaire, will simply justify the Board reclassifying any case, at any time, in order to conform to actual fact.

3050 men are registered in this County making a vast amount of Material to be examined, but ample authority exists for the correction of any real error which may be discovered.

The final 5 per cent of Questionnaires were sent out on January 9, but some will not reach the registrant, on account of change in location, and the board will appropriate information giving the address of any who may not receive the Questionnaire, as no effort will be spared to reach every man thus removing the necessity of treating him as a delinquent. This applies particularly to all men who are enlisted in any branch of the service, no matter where he may be.

N. Allie Crommett, a former resident of Norway, has sold his taxi-drome place at Lake Worth, Florida, and moved his stock to Miami, Fla., and has taken a half interest in the Tropical Garden Alligator Farm. They have the largest stock of live alligators in the state and do a good deal of taxi-drome work and supply most of the places around the city with crocodiles. They also deal in hides, buying mostly from the Seminole Indians. There is also a fruit grove in connection with this farm. Mr. Crommett says that he has met several people from Maine there this winter.

Chester Holden and son Paul are boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Dennett Cotton on Danforth street. Harry Holden is assisting with the cooking and chores, and also caring for the children. Mr. Holden is an invalid for two years.

One hundred cords of dry wood were sold in the village from which he could have realized a fancy price delivered on the cars. It was distributed locally to relieve the shortage.

Two double teams are hauling green wood that is snapped up by anxious customers.

Mrs. Susan Craigie, Winter street, has been suffering with sciatic rheumatism, Rose Hamlin has been caring for her. Her daughter, Harriet Craigie, who passed a short vacation here, has returned to her school at Rockland, Mass.

The Novelty Turning Co. were forced to give up their day run until matters are straightened at the power station. They started Monday working nights as much power can be furnished at that time to carry on the business.

The good old days of barges are not over yet for Norway and South Paris are concerned. Since the street cars have been rendered useless, logging sleds with their bodies fitted with seats and other contrivances have been used as connecting links between the two villages. It is an uncomfortable means of transportation for modern times, but they get there.

Carroll, Jellerson Shoe Co. changed to their own steam power Monday and will run in that manner until repairs have been completed at the Oxford Electric Co.

Mrs. Etta C. Ridlon has finished work at the Z. L. Merchant store after nearly 26 years services in this store. Twenty-five years ago last March Mrs. Ridlon entered the employ of S. B. & Z. S. Prince, as head clerk, and when the business was sold to the new firm, she continued with the new firm, and has been head clerk continuously and has made many friends.

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL

Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others.

Christopher, Ill.—"For four years I suffered from irregularities, nervousness, and was in a run down condition. Two of our best doctors failed to do me any good. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, I tried it and was cured. I am no longer nervous, am regular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound will simply justify the Board reclassifying any case, at any time, in order to conform to actual fact."

Truman Won Return Match

Homer Truman of Norway secured two straight falls from Jim Prokos, the Terrible Greek of Lowell, Mass., in a show where a few unwise ringside rooters gave open expression to their feelings, and a protest from Prokos all but broke House Thursday evening, Jan. 17.

The semi-final Omar King of Island Pond, Vt., did up Wendall Tripp of Lewiston in two straight with a get-me-quick finish and "Farmer" Doughty of North Norway, who belted the second and third of the places around the village of South Paris in the preliminary. In the curtain raising match feeling ran high with Referee Odell Rich of this town playing the goat, the Paris boy's supporters claiming a "unjust roast." All contestants were weighed at a premium and the show was behind schedule on starting.

Odell Rich of considerable sporting ability volunteered to fill the position, but landed in a hornet's nest. The preliminary started with McGinley weighing 136 pounds and "Farmer" Doughty at 118. This was carried along for three rounds. McGinley copped the first fall in 15 minutes, but the young farmer cleaned up the second in 9 minutes and the third in 45 seconds. Odell's troubles started with his decision at the second fall and it required considerable persuasion to get McGinley back for the third attack. The last decision, giving the match to Doughty was like dropping a bomb in a gasoline can, there was an explosion and the rooters, contestants and officials arguing in a decided manner. One or two near the ringside were so enthusiastic over the matter that it required several peacekeepers to quiet the tumult. Altogether this part of the show came through with plenty of pep to suit the most fastidious.

Omar King, weighing 126, showed superior skill over Wendall Tripp, 122, closing out the first round in 4 minutes and 30 seconds with a body scissors and the final with a full nelson in 30 seconds. The work was fast with strength about the quality and mental in tight places and followed up openings quickly, keeping his opponent on the defense.

Referee Rich had no jolts in this match and affairs went along swimmingly. King closed the final argument much like the old long about "turning right round and going out the back door."

In the main bout Truman entered the ropes at 174 pounds with Prokos but a pound and a half lighter. Catch-catch-can, toe and strangle holds barred, best two in three were the conditions. The boys, a return match both were thoroughly acquainted and no long sized up tactics played. Prokos commenced playing trump at the start, showing a determination to win quickly. Truman balked every drive and speeded up to meet his gamy friend, who was active every minute. Considerable leg action and rushing carried the prize into the ropes where they fell in a tangle frequently. Fred (Cyclone) Gregg, an old time Pittsburg (Pa.) wrestler officiated in this mill. He also had his troubles as a fall decision with the wrestlers piled in a corner, threw the Lowell visitor into a stalling fit. A threat to leave the mat and a windy argument over ring rules consumed several minutes. Manager Stairs read Prokos' agreement and terms for this match, also a telegram received that morning giving his conditions at the last moment. Referee Gregg wanted to retire, but no substitute could be found. Equilibrium was finally restored and the show went merrily on more intense than before. At the climax of the first round Truman got his antagonist in 5 minutes with powerful body adgesors. With less speed, relying on a skill game, Truman followed this up with more action, being apparently in better physical and physical snap. This over-the-top method brought victory to the husky Maine chap in 6 minutes, a body scissors and half nelson did the trick.

Jim Prokos was dead game even in defeat and with a good-night speech admitted he was fairly beaten with a scissor hold which was applied by Truman, the most brutal thing to get from him in his fifteen years' experience. He also vowed to take Homer to New York for training and real work with fast company.

W. Frank Stairs promoted this show. Arthur (Mickey) Welch was time keeper. Those who might aspire to the unruly spectators should not blame the manager of the Norway Athletic Club. The fair was soon over and rest assured the occurrence will not happen again.

Elmer Packard went to Boston Monday afternoon to remain several days, business in company with John Wood, superintendent at the Norway Shoe Co.

Berencie Nash has given up the position as soloist in the Methodist and Union churches for a short time. Miss Nash is substituting at the Methodist church and Harold Moore is assisting at the Universalist church.

Newspapers Representing Three Wars

Mrs. Ella Jewett Cole of Norway has copies of "The Daily Chattanooga Rebel" printed at Selma, Ala., Feb. 1, 1865, the Chattanooga Daily Times, July 2, 1865, and "Trench and Camp" by the Chattanooga Daily Times, an edition for Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., Dec. 3, 1917. A period of 52 years is covered which include items from the only war our country has been engaged in during a half century.

The "Rebel" is typically a southern sheet and conveys the general secession feeling at the time. It is a six column, two page sheet printed on soft thin stock common through the south during the northern embargo. Franc M. Paul & Co. were the publishers, the price was $6 per month. Confederate news given in an optimistic spirit, but the "Yankee" victories are belittled and their ultimate surrender is predicted. The editorial column is given to reviews from southern publications and sarcastic comments upon matters up north, especially to President Lincoln's war policy. Apparently things were not altogether lovely to General Lee as quoted as saying in interview, "I can see nothing in the military situation to justify despondency, much less despair. His only fear was that the disease of depression might be permitted to spread among the people and that could be prevented he was sanguine of success."

An item stated that between January 1 and December 1917, 31,630 Yankee soldiers were received in Libby Prison. Since the war began 125,000 northerners have been received in that prison. A commission corporation, who did a general business in commodities, advertised to receive and care for negroes and horses on consignment. Much space is taken up by the government and state, General Orders to their military heads. "When certain localities were to be reached specific papers were mentioned with the note—please copy four times."

The Spanish-American war epoch is represented by the Daily Times featuring the battle of Santiago with Shafter's army fighting on land and Sampson's fleet bombarding the forts. This is an eight page sheet, on regular pulp paper and up-to-date in every department. The editorial corner breathes true, united Americanism. A suggestion paragraph shows the changed sentiment through that part of the country. "It is a cold day in July when the London Saturday Review doesn't print a tissue of lies and spiteful rubbish about the Yankees." This is followed by an arraignment that probably made a hit through those trying days. Barbed wire entanglements were introduced by the Americans, this fact led editorially to comparisons back in the Civil war days when the confederates felled trees, sharpening the stub limbs which pointed toward the advance northerners. A small force were thus able to hold back thousands of Sherman's best troops. General Sherman, who fell while leading his men through and over this obstruction, is mentioned as a "gallant officer" and otherwise unforgettably remembered. Several columns are crowded with military matters about Chickamauga Park. Armies and departments are faithfully recorded with numbers and western troops mentioned in the same friendly spirit as those below the almost forgotten Mason-Dixon line or outside the original confederacy boundaries.

The Trench and Camp printed weekly for the Y. M. C. A. by courtesy of the Chattanooga Daily Times represents the present struggle. It has eight, four column pages crammed with copy sure to interest the boys. A page or more of nifty cartoons by artists in the ranks, depicting life in uniform are especially the trials of a buck private are especially the better work and higher aims.

Mrs. Cole also has a copy of the Mobile Daily Tribune, vol. 18, No. 3285, dated Sunday, Feb. 5, 1865 and published in that city. It is a one sheet, seven column paper on very thin stock, of a quality far below the "Rebel". Compared with our modern make-up it stands in many ways unique, especially among the ads. One reads like this: "For Sale—A beautiful Paris made black dress coat, just the thing for a gentleman on contemplating matrimony, also a vest to match. Also a charming pair of fancy pantaloons, Brooks & Ketchum, commission merchants, offer for sale among other collateral a negro man, guaranteed, a good hostler, steamboat and field hand. In the mayors court, Hon. R. H. Slough presiding, John was fined ten lashes for being out after hours. Alfred received the same number because he smoked on the street. Undoubtedly both were slaves. We know prices of clothing are certain to be high soon. There is no way to avoid it. Our policy the past two years has been to hold down prices and protect our customers just as long as possible. We intend to do the same in the future, but we must of necessity get a reasonable profit or retire from business.

At Present Our Prices Are But Little Above Normal because they are based on prices of raw materials six months to one year ago, which makes our present prices in some instances less than today's wholesale prices.

Wait and you soon will pay $1 for a 50c article; $2 or more for a $1 article. Do you not see the necessity of buying now your Suits, Overcoats, Mackinaws, Sweaters, Underwear, Odd Trousers?

The community was very much excited when it was learned Wednesday morning that Fred Reed, an old gentleman that had worked for E. B. Davis for a number of years, had hung himself. WEST PARIS

Old Fashioned Winter
We have heard many definitions and accounts of the old fashioned winter. This surely seems like one if plenty of snow and blow and zero weather is what it takes to make one. Last Saturday gave promise of a stormy winter day so that it was thought best to postpone the all day grange meeting and installation until the next regular meeting. Tuesday was another hard snow storm which stopped all outside traffic and the Red Cross meeting and installation in the evening was postponed. So much for the good old fashioned winter!

Fell Under Pressure
For years there have been some 5 or 6 horse sleds at the rear of the M. E. parsonage, one was closed in with a door and Lendall Yates had his automobile stored there, another was used for wood, the rest were used publicly as a customarily wherever there are open horse sheds.

Sunday night, or rather early Monday morning a crackling, rumbling noise was heard by the pastor, Rev. L. W. Grundy, who hastily arose and went out, expecting to find the old horse sheds on fire, not seeing any blaze anywhere, he went back, finished dressing and then made a more thorough investigation and found that the whole line of sheds had gone flat with the weight of snow that was upon them. There was no other damage particularly. Mr. Yates had some trouble extricating his auto.

Mrs. Betsy Curtis on Curtis Hill is very poorly in health.

Carlton P. Dunham has sold his residence on Maple street to Rev. A. Raita, the Finnish minister.

Mrs. F. E. Wheeler started this week, Monday, for Fort Oglethorpe where the doctor is stationed. She has closed her house here.

Schools commenced again this week. Miss Dickey, the Mammoth School teacher, who has been boarding with Mrs. F. E. Wheeler, has gone to Mrs. L. H. Penley's to board. June Swan of Greenwood is boarding at Allie Emery's.

GREENWOOD
Herman W. Emmons from the flag ship, Pennsylvania, had a leave of absence and visited relatives in Norway and this vicinity.

Mrs. Hannah A. Emmons passed away Jan. 8th, at the age of 80 years and 4 months. She has been a resident of this town for 50 years. She leaves two sons and one daughter, W. O. and W. S. Emmons and Mrs. L. H. Foster of Madison, also sixteen grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren.

Mrs. E. D. Coburn from Crystal, N. H., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Emmons a few days last week and attended the funeral of her grandmother.

Nettie Swan expects to commence work for her sister, Mrs. R. E. Morgan this week.

June Swan has returned to school at West Paris and is boarding with Mrs. A. Emery.

NORWAY CENTER

A. L. Wyman and son are cutting pine for E. B. Witt on his lot at this place, near the lake.

Madeline Wymann, Velma Frank and Elmer Watson were at their homes over Sunday.

H. O. Knightly spent a few days at home, recently.

NORTHEAST LOVELL
Laura Durgin, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Mell Charles at No. 8, has returned to her home at Mrs. Nellie Harmon's at the village.

George A. Files was at Willis Walker's at the village, Thursday on business.

Rev. C. H. Fisher has finished his preaching at the Center Lovell Christian Church. He will go with his wife, who is in Massachusetts caring for her mother, who is very sick, on this account Mr. Fisher is leaving. We are sorry to have him go, as he has done good work while here, and the church is in fine financial standing and 14 people have recently joined and it shows the membership is fast increasing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kendall and two girls and George Files and wife were guests at George Eastman's, Sunday.

Elwell Andrews has a very lame horse.

J. W. Stanford, who fell from the scaffold while getting down hay and broke two ribs, is very comfortable at this writing.

Mrs. Freeman Andrews and grandson, Arlington Files, are both sick with bad colds.

Charles Kendall of Rochester, N. H., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Kendall.

We are very proud of our storekeeper L. L. Stearns. "Why?" you will ask. Because he passes the ladies a nice pound of sugar.

A service flag was given the Center Lovell Christian Church by Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, January 6, with seven stars upon it, representing these big seven-year-old boys in war. Carl and Percy Farnham, Jerome and Wendall Volk, Milo McAllister, John Meserve and Elmon Vance.

Election of Officers

Treas.—Helen Eastman.

Charles Kendall of Rochester, N. H., visited his son, Freeman Andrews, Monday and Tuesday.

GRANDMA'S BIT
Grandma is busy knitting a sock. And thinking and planning for her little Rock. To knit, there are mittens and stockings galore. For Percy and Teddy and Lucy and Noah. Then one will ask these big seven-year-old boys, "Grandma knit for the boys 'over there'?" Grandma's hands are too worn and lame. But she'll play her part to the end of the game. And as there is sorrow and burdens to share, She will do her bit for the boys 'over there'.
